Success story

Name of PWDs : Veena Sahu ,

Age: 30

Disability : Locomotor

Venue: Balodabazar

Veena (30), an independent women of middle class family with 80 % disability (locomotor) residing in, Balodabazar with his parents and 4 siblings in joint family. Her parents have been pillar of strength for Veena. She left school after completing matriculation because in order to pursue for further education she has to go to other place which is too far from her village and at that time she don't have tricycle and no proper travel arrangement is available. Brief about intervention- how he/she heard support was available; what did he/she feel; significant challenge before intervention; kind of support he/she received/ role Sightsavers played. Talk to family members, a health worker or teacher for opinion on the situation- capture direct quotes in "inverted commas" In year 2016 she can in touch where Grihini associate explain about Sightsavers CG social inclusion program. She slow took interest and she start gathering information related to PWDs rights and entitlements. She attain various capacity building, leadership, livelihood training which was organized by Sightsavers. In her free time she use to do stitching at her home but from that she was not able to earn good amount of money. Then took initiative and form self-help group and name it as Divyang Jan manav Kalyan SHG and conduct regular saving and meeting. She is also member of Disable person organization Jan Manv Viklang kalyan sangh. Then they also register their SHG in National Rural livelihood mission. Group members SHG got and opportunity to work under NULM under Mission clean city campaign where they have to segregate dry waste and wet waste. At present from her SHG Veena is working in mission clean city and earning approximately Rs. 5000-6000 on monthly basis and supporting her family financially. After seeing her dedication towards her work she was awarded by chief minister of Chhattisgarh Mr. Bhupesh Baghel under Mission clean city event at Raipur. Veena is also appointed as Disable person Icon in election.

Veena's story of success and empowerment is now an inspiration for many underprivileged, self-dependent women of the society.
